

Why Are You So Cold?

F Bb

There's a wind that blows in the space between your words

F

That's changed the rules of the game

Bb

I know you're singin' but it's not a song
I've heard

F

I just know things ain't the same

Dm

We're still on that same old road

Bb F

Why are you so cold?

She's just not as friendly I heard an old friend say

I said I don't know where she's been

The message you send me it says stay away

You've got a house I've never been in

Can we make the distance fold?

Why are you so cold?

Bb

Was it the words whispered behind your back

F

Around your wedding day

Bb

Are you following some method of attack

F

Designed to chase your friends away

Dm

Is it something you were sold

Bb F

Why are you so cold?

The light in your eyes I can't find at all
I wanna talk, you don't have the time
You have to have a reason every time you call

Like you're guilty of some crime

Are you doin' what you're told?

Is that why you're so cold?
